Outer Loop meetings an important opportunity

Editorial Board

The Herald-Zeitung

Published June 21, 2008

Two additional public meetings have been scheduled next week on the proposed New Braunfels Outer Loop. Two consulting groups looking at east and west sectors of the proposed loop have heard hundreds of public comments, and in some cases revised the plans to correct mistakes.

Some of the protests, notably the Citizens Alliance for Smarter Growth, have protested the very presence of an outer loop. Whether or not, a loop comes to pass, the focus of the plans has changed over time.

If you are curious about the loop plans, or have property in its 40-mile route and you want TxDOT to hear your comments, attend either Wednesday or Thursday's hearings and have your say. It is likely to be the last opportunity before the loop goes for adoption into the thoroughfare plan. The meetings are at Canyon High School and begin at 6:30 p.m.
